Latest Foreign Intelligence.

From London papers received at the office of the Mercantile Advertiser, by Ship Brothers, Hall, Liverpool.

LONDON, August 19.

We have received Paris Journals of the 16th inst. On the preceding day, Sunday last, called the day of the Assumption of the Virgin, a solemn Te Deum was chanted in the church of Notre Dame of Paris, and in all those of the diocese, to return thanks for the Senatus Consulta, of the 12th and 13th of the month. The same day, a solemn service for returning thanks was performed in the temple of the protestants at Paris, the St. Thomas du Louvre, in consequence of the Proclamation of the Senatus Consultum, for organizing the constitution. These journals present little else respecting France itself; but some of the articles from other countries are interesting. It appears by the accounts from Switzerland, that the petty Cantons, instead of acquiescence and submission to the new order of things, a formal insurrection is organizing there against the central government, and it is very uncertain whether it will be possible to make them receive the new constitution. The instigator of these commotions is the late Landamman Reding. It appears that he has been long labouring on the execution of his vast plan of a counter revolution, and for this purpose he has taken advantage of the absence of the French troops. He began by calling an assembly of his confidential friends at Gerfau. In this meeting, which took place on the 24th of last month, it was resolved to convoke, on the 17th of August, the general assembly of the people of the three petty Cantons; to oblige all the public functionaries to resign their places; to induce the old magistrates of 1798 to resume their functions; to form a confederation between the three cantons; and to collect all the men capable of bearing arms. At Schwitz, Reding assured the inhabitants that Bonaparte, whom he chose to denote by the following words, the man who makes Europe tremble, had given him his word that the canton might constitute itself as it pleased. The re-establishment of the ancient order of things was proposed. Reding was then appointed Landamman, and all the ancient authorities were restored. In many places the pastoral letter of the bishop of Constance, which declared that there was nothing in the new constitution contrary to religion, was torn from the church doors on which it was posted.

The full powers of the extraordinary deputation of the empire have been printed and published at Ratisbon. The following is a copy of them.

General full powers of the Empire, for the deputation charged with the discussion of the points which remain to be regulated for completing the peace.

"The Electors, Princes and States of the Holy Roman Empire, having judged it proper to exercise, by an extraordinary deputation, the right which belongs to them of concurring in the discussion of the objects which still remain to be settled for completing the peace; and having for this purpose elected and nominated in the college of electors, Mentz, Bohemia, Saxony, and Brandenburg; and in that of Princes, Bavaria, the Grand Master of the Teutonic Order, Wurtemberg and Hesse Cassel; the said deputed States are fully authorized by these presents in the name of the Germanic Body, & with the consent of his Imperial Majesty, in his quality of Supreme Chief of the Empire, to send, as soon as possible, their sub-delegates to the imperial city of Ratisbon, which has been considered as the most convenient place to examine, discuss, and regulate, with the Imperial Minister Plenipotentiary, in concert with the French government, and paying attention to the Conclusion of October 24, of last year, ratified by his Imperial Majesty, the points referred by the 5th and 7th articles of the treaty of Luneville, by a particular convention; in consequence of what shall be discussed, concluded and signed by the said deputies, either by all, or in case of absence, sickness or non-appearance of any of them, by the rest, with the Imperial Minister, must, within a determinate time, be ratified, agreed to, and inviolably observed by the whole empire."

The Court of Berlin has lately sent to Paris two elegant Snuff Boxes, with the Portrait of his Majesty the King of Prussia, destined for the Minister Talleyrand, and General Bournoville; each Snuff Box is valued at 6000 dollars.

The Monitor contains letters from General Richepanse at Guadaloupe, announcing that he has sent home to France a number of persons of color whom he thought dangerous to the peace of the island. He is resolved to put arms into the hands of none but Europeans. He considers any other system as mischievous.

Ordonnance of Police, concerning the proclamation of the two senatus consulta of the 2d and 4th of August, 1802.

Paris, August 12, 1802.

The Counsellor of State, Prefect of Police, orders as follows:—

Art. 1. On Sunday, the 15th of August, at seven in the morning precisely, the two Senatus Consulta of the 2d and 4th inst. shall be solemnly proclaimed in the city of Paris, in all the rural communes of the department of Seine, and in those of Sevre, Meudon, and St. Cloud, in the department of Seine and Oise.

2. On the said 15th of August, the streets, quays, places and bridges, shall be swept and cleaned before five in the morning.

3. The streets, quays places, bridges, and promenades, shall be watered. Every inhabitant shall conform to this order, as far as he is concerned.

4. On the said 15th of August, the inhabitants of Paris shall illuminate the fronts of their houses.

5. For the safety of Citizens, no carriage shall be permitted in the streets of Paris from eight in the evening of the preceding day, until the morning of the day succeeding, except the carriages proceeding to the palace of Government, the couriers of the mail, and the diligences.

6. The Commissaries of Police shall strictly carry into execution the regulation which prohibit the firing of pieces, petards, boetes, bombs, and other fireworks, in the streets, promenades, public places, courts, & gardens, or the windows of houses.

7. The present Ordonnance shall be printed, posted up, and sent to the Sub Prefects of Seaux and St. Denis, to the Mayors of the rural communes of Sevre, Meudon, and St. Cloud, in the department of Seine and Oise, to the Commissaries of Police, to the Peace Officers, and to the Overseers of the Prefecture, in order that each as far as he is concerned, may carry it into execution.

The General Commandant of the First Military Division, the General Commandant d'Armes of the Place de Paris and the Chiefs of the Select Legion of Gendarmes, and of the National Gendarmerie, are required to be in readiness with a strong force, in case it should be wanted.

According to a letter from the Minister of the General Police, those accused of emigration who have not received the benefit of the amnesty, cannot quit their habitual residence without having obtained his special permission. Those who have been admitted to the benefit of the amnesty may obtain passports from the proper authorities to travel in the interior; but the Minister must be informed of it, as well as the Prefect of the department where the parties reside; neither the one nor the other can in any case come to Paris without the special authority of the Minister.

Judge Washington gave an excellent charge to the grand jury. After calling the docket the court adjourned to the next day. At the opening of the court on Saturday, the defendants in two actions which were continued from the April term pleaded in subfiftence, that the cafes were instituted before the circuit court of the fecond circuit of the United States, holden at New Haven in April laft, for the diftrict of Connecticut, compofed of the honorable Egbert Benfon, Oliver Wolcott, and Samuel Hitchcock, who in purfuanee of a law of Congress paffed in February 1801, had been appointed judges of that court, and whole commiffions, having never been vacated, were now in force, and that the actions were now depending before the court compofed of the faid Benfon, Wolcott and Hitchcock; and therefore the defendants prayed the faid judges Washington and Law to take no further cognizance of the actions. In confequence of this objection to the legal authority, and exiftence of the court, all the bufinefs of the court was continued. The pleas of the jurifdiction were not argued, but by agreement of the parties were continued to the next term. It is underftood that fimilar questions will be raifed, and

Our last accounts from Worcester, inform that the "FARMER" has this disease to an alarming degree. He was inoculated at Washington by the great great philosopher of Monticello with matter received from Terra del Fuego, and immediately returned to Worcester to go through the progress of the disorder, as it was thought that place would be more favorable to its operations than Washington. However, from some unskilful management, the fever has got to such an height as to baffle all "oppugnation." The "FARMER" is now "INFURIATE," agonizing under "threes and convulsions" equal to any ever endured in "the ancient world."

Lands in Kentucky.

To be sold by Public Sale at the Tontine Coffee-Room, New York, on the 2d day of December next, at 12 o'clock, noon.

Eleven thousand acres of land in one or more lots; laying in the county of Fayette, State of Kentucky about 30 miles from Lexington and Frankfort, 20 miles south east of the Ohio River and adjacent to the public road between the two Maima Rivers and several rising settlements. The soil generally good, well watered and timber of various descriptions.

These lands within 15 miles of Main Leeking and Kentucky rivers, both navigable two to three hundred miles above the extremity of the lands.

Also,

To be sold at the same time and place as the above, another TRACT of LAND of nine thousand acres, in one or more lots, in the county of Fayette, State of Kentucky, nearly the same distance from Lexington, Frankfort and the Ohio Rivers, as the foregoing tract, and lays between the former and Main Leeking river, distant from the latter only a few miles.

The soil is in general good, well watered and timber of different kinds, and as the former tract, in the neighborhood of the settled parts of Kentucky, and opposite a Jersey settlement. The grants by Edmund Randolph, Esq. in 1787 and 1788, and the title deeds are clear and indisputable.

As these lands are to be disposed of for behalf of creditors, they will be positively sold to the highest bidder, for approved notes at two and three months.

Capt. Fowler or Mr. James Masterfon of Lexington; Mr. George Brook, Clerk of Woodford county; or major John Lee near Frankfort will point out the lands. For further information and an accurate plan of the lands, apply to John & Charles Wilkes Esqrs. or Lewis Simond Esq. New York, or to Mr. Brown, Dumfries, Virginia.

The Executors of the late Gen. Geo. Washington offer for sale, the following

TRACTS OF LAND, viz.

A tract in Loudoun county on Difficult Run, containing 300 acres. The soil well adapted for farming and a considerable proportion of it might easily be improved into meadow. There is a valuable mill-seat on the premises. It lies on the great road from the City of Washington, Alexandria and George Town to Leesburgh and Winchester, nineteen miles from Alexandria, less from the City and George Town and not more than three from the Great Falls of Potomac.

One tract containing 2,481 acres lying in the counties of Loudoun and Fauquier, called Ashby's Bent. The soil is that which is said to be most favorable to Plaster of Paris, well watered by several never failing streams issuing from the mountain—part of this land is cleared and tenanted for lives.

One tract lying part in each of the above counties, containing 885 acres. Chatten's run passes through this tract and gives several valuable mill-seats. The soil is similar to the above tract and equally favorable to Plaster of Paris.

A tract on the South Fork of Bullskin, containing 1600 acres—One also, Head of Evans's Mill, containing 453 acres, and one on Wormley's line, containing 183 acres. These several tracts are in Jefferson (late Berkeley county)—the soil very similar in quality, and particularly adapted to the culture of Tobacco, Hemp, Wheat and Indian Corn, situated twelve miles from Harper's Ferry.

One tract containing 571 acres in Frederick county, this land is in the vicinity of the last mentioned tracts and equally valuable.

One tract in Hampshire county containing 240 acres—this tract, though small is extremely valuable. It lies on Potomac river, about 12 miles above the town of Bath (or Warm Springs) and is in the shape of a horse-shoe, the river running almost round it; two hundred acres of it are rich low grounds, with a great abundance of the largest Walnut and other trees, which with the produce of the soil, might (by means of the improved navigation of the Potomac) be brought to a shipping port with more ease and at a smaller expense, than that which is transported only 30 miles by land.

One third part of 1119 acres in Nansemond county near Suffolk, lying on the road from Suffolk to Norfolk and on Nansemond river—this land is considered extremely valuable by those who are acquainted with it.

One tract in Charles county, Maryland, containing 600 acres—it is very level and lies near the river Potomac.

One tract in Montgomery county, Maryland, containing 519 acres—This land lies about 30 miles above the City of Washington, not far from Kettocan and is good farming land.

One tract in Pennsylvania, containing 34 acres—This land affords an exceeding good stand on Braddock's road from Fort Cumberland to Pittsburg, and a large quantity of natural meadow fit for the scythe. It is distinguished by the appellation of the Great Meadows, where the first action with the French, in the year 1754, was fought.

One other tract on the Mohawk river, State of New-York, containing 1000 acres.

In North West Territory. Three tracts lying on Little Miami, containing 305 1/2 acres.

In Kentucky. On Rough Creek, one tract containing 3000 acres; ditto adjoining 2000 acres. Indisputable titles can be given for the above lands. Lots in the City of Washington.

Two improved lots near the Capitol, square 634. The improvements are, on each an elegant three story brick house.

Four other unimproved lots on the Eastern Branch, No. 5, 12, 13 and 14, in square 667. These lots are advantageously situated on the water.

ALEXANDRIA.

A few valuable lots in Alexandria, corner of Pitt and Prince-streets, three or four of which are let on ground rent at 3 dollars per foot.

WINCHESTER.

One lot in Town of half an acre, adjoining Doctor Makay's, enclosed with a good post and rail fence, and another in the commons of about six acres.

Bath, or Warm Springs.

Two well situated lots, on one of them is a small building large enough to accommodate one family.

The terms of sale will be made known by application to either of the subscribers.

A PROPOSAL BY SAMUEL BISHOP, For publishing by Subscription, LETTERS

ON THE

Elementary Principles

EDUCATION.

By Elizabeth Hamilton,

Author of the "Memoirs of Modern Philosophers," &c.

ON this interesting and highly important branch of science, several valuable works have, within a few years, been presented to the public, among which the above, as it is the most recent, so is it pre-eminently useful. Led by her subject into an inquiry concerning the nature of the active powers, and intellectual faculties of the human mind, Mrs. Hamilton has developed those powers and faculties with a perspicuity and ability which, while it arrests the attention of those who have most successfully studied these subjects, must render a competent knowledge of them familiar to the most ordinary capacity. The superficialness and frivolity of character engendered by the modern system of education, have been long, and, unfortunately, a subject of complaint; but the particular causes by which these serious evils have been produced, were hitherto but imperfectly known, or little attended to: To trace these evils to their source, and to point out the proper remedy, is the ultimate object to which the meritorious efforts of this Author have been directed; and in these efforts she has, it is believed, succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations. Such indeed, is the importance of the inquiries which form the subject of this work, and so great the success with which these inquiries have been pursued, that the happiest consequences to society may reasonably be expected to result from the present publication. To all it is interesting in a very high degree, but to mothers of families, and others engaged in the formation of the minds of children and youth, it will prove an acquisition truly invaluable.

The rapid sale of two impressions of this work in England, sufficiently evinces the high estimation in which it is there held: An American edition—equal to, and at little more than half the price of the British edition—is now offered to the patronage of the American public; by whom its merits will, doubtless, be justly appreciated.

[An Extract from the above Work.]

"From most of the writers on education it would appear, that it is only to people of rank and fortune that education is a matter of any importance. By such alone can the systems that are generally proposed, be adopted. To such, therefore, must we believe them to be exclusively addressed. To make fine ladies and finished gentlemen forms no part of my plan, which has for its object the subjection of the passions, the direction of the affections, and the cultivation of the faculties that are common to the whole human race."

* The price of the British edition, is fifteen shillings, sterling, in boards.

CONDITIONS.

I. The Work shall be comprised in two Duodecimo volumes, of about 450 pages each, & shall be printed in the best manner, on a fine Paper, and new Type.

II. The price will be one Dollar per volume in boards, payable on delivery.

* A very considerable number of Copies being already subscribed for, the work shall be put to Press, and finished without delay.

Subscriptions received by the Publisher.
